

To a Pal

Fred Casey

by George Albert Leddy

To a dear old Pal, of the drinking days:
We liked your style, and we liked your ways.
We don't regret, and we won't forget;
The happy day, when we first met.

We hear you've taken a fair Bride;
To travel ever by your side.
We hope she'll think as much of you;
As all the fellows, down here, do.

We're sending to your Bride, and you;
A token of a friendship true.
And hope all joy, your lives, will fill;
And "Blessings on you!"
—Bert and Gill.
